

Photo of the area where the proposed building will be located. The billboard and the building next to the billboard are proposed to be removed.

Existing commercial buildings including the appliance store on the subject site that are proposed to remain.

View of the subject site from S. 148th St. The old neighborhood resource center is not on the subject site, but is a separate parcel. The residential structure is on the subject parcel.