- Introductions

- Chief's update
  - Continuing with pilot of body cameras
  - Two weeks ago Chief Villa received an invitation from the White House to attend a briefing on the President's Task Force on 21st Century Policing. The biggest gap in following the recommendations in the report is social media outreach.
  - Since attending this meeting Chief Villa has been invited to assist other departments via teleconferencing.
  - Question: is there a concern after the shootings in Dallas, and how is that stress managed? Copycat incidents are always a concern. One thing is to have officers only respond in pairs to incidents. Officers are aware the danger is out there but also are taught to handle that stress. Chief is holding judgment about publicized police shootings, because we don't have the whole story. TPD does a lot of training around crisis type incidents to provide officers with the proper tools to use force appropriately and without bias.
  - Question: In reference to bombing in France, what is TPD doing to prevent similar issues? There is a protocol to identify if there are any local connections to the event and use that to identify potential targets. We are also connect with the FBI and Counter-terrorism Task Force and get warnings from them as well. Another concern is about a "lone wolf" type attacker, who is totally off the radar.

- Fourth of July went well for the police. This year there was a team out consisting of PD and FD July 1, 2, 3 and 4 to just do fireworks enforcement. This year people seemed to stop lighting off fireworks earlier in the night. There were no house fires, just a brush fire at Interurban and Grady Way.
- Big event at Boeing this weekend. Many officers will assist with this, paid for by Boeing.

- Terry is here to learn. He owns an apartment building in the northeast portion of Tukwila. He is upset with TPD, but was always treated with courtesy.

- COPCAB Goals tabled

- Good of the Order
  - John - will be teaching a second tai chi class
  - Jan – tent city will be moving on this weekend. They do not have a location secured at this time.
  - Kim – was very impressed with officers on July 1st and they assisted with an incident at her apartment community.
  - Jerry – Valley View Sewer/Water District 125 open house on July 20th from noon to 6pm. Free food for everyone who attends. Night Out Against Crime at CBSR.
  - Chris – July 30th, quiet time at Touch a Truck from 9-10am with no horns or sirens, NNO is Tuesday August 2nd, encouraged members to support the Public Safety Plan.
