Members present: Jan Bolerjack, John Lindsey, Roger Arnold, Katrina Dohn

Staff present: Deputy Chief Eric Lund

Guest: None

Approval of 1/13/22 minutes: It was requested that the name Belltown be changed to correctly be Allentown in the discussion of the 42nd Ave. bridge. That change was approved.

This led to a question about if extra patrol has been assigned to the bridge. There is concern about the river bank and weight limits. Officers have to have commercial vehicle enforcement certification, which is a 2-week course. They cannot write tickets for trucks being overweight now.

Chief's Update:

- ✓ The staffing crisis continues, with 58 of 77 positions being available. Others are on light duty or in academy. 3 are on administrative leave and 1 is on military deployment. In non-commissioned positions, 21 of 23 are available, with there being 1 vacancy and 1 frozen position.
- ✓ Overtime question: January had the highest overtime rate in the last year. However, they still came in under budget because the vacancies gave them the ability to absorb the overtime.
- ✓ Video is being made about the homelessness encampments and related issues throughout the city. That will be released soon.
- ✓ SPIDR Tech – has template for general questions, can add our own as well
- ✓ Officer Recognitions
 - Officer of the Year – Sgt. Zach Anderson
 - Officer of the Quarter – Officer Ryan McAdory
 - Ambra Durbin – records specialist
 - 30 Years of Service – Officer Hines
- ✓ Morale – Morale is a bit better. The proposed legislation that would fix some of the problems has helped.

Word on the Street:

- ✓ Get the word out to people that if they see graffiti on city property, to report it and it will be taken care of immediately. Graffiti on private property continues to be a problem.

Good of the Order:

- ✓ Question about videos required to be on committees. This is from the Mayor's office. Committee members have 90 days to do the training. Deputy Lund will find out the steps to do that.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:21pm.
