Chief's Updates:

- Staffing Roster shared – more positive level of staffing due to extra effort on recruitment
- Had first PD Town Hall
- City Budget passed with 20% increase for PD. Allows to fill previously frozen positions and inflation. Recruitment budget. Take home cars.
- Goals for 2023 (shared with PD at town hall) – staffing, officer wellbeing, internal communication effectiveness, coverage of staffing absences with some shift adjustments, grow community engagement with Brooke, reestablishing SRO's, continuing digitalization of records, begin work on 5-year plan
- Highlights – Crime was down a bit over the holidays. Bus area east of Penney's improving
- Problems – drug use at Light Rail – Metro is working on revisions in landscaping and fencing. Smash and grabs continued.

Community Engagement Coordinator's Report:

- Worked with SHAG to develop own community watch group, expanding to Foster Greens Apts
- Working on SAFE Place program launch
- Attended Retail Theft meeting with local business leaders

Word on the Street

- Charlee and Katrina appreciate speed bumps on 46th
- Mr. Sherlock reported car crime at Costco and property crime at home
- Graffiti clean up done by Katrina & friends, as well as Public Works
- Request to see Spider Survey Results again

Good of the order:

- Need to recruit a few more COPCAB members

Meeting Adjourned at 7:48pm.
