

Office of the Mayor
City of Tukwila, Washington
PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, public works professionals focus on infrastructure, facilities, emergency management, and services that are of vital importance to sustainable and resilient communities and the public health, high quality of life, and well-being of the people in the Tukwila community; and

WHEREAS, these infrastructures, facilities, and services could not be provided without the dedicated efforts of public works professionals, who are federally mandated first responders, and the engineers, managers, and employees at all levels, who are responsible for rebuilding, improving, and protecting the transportation, water supply, water treatment and solid waste systems, public buildings, and other structures and facilities essential to the community; and

WHEREAS, the Public Works services provided in our community are an integral part of the daily lives of our residents; and

WHEREAS, the efficient and effective provision of these services greatly enhances the health, safety, and welfare of our community; and

WHEREAS, 2023 marks the 63rd annual National Public Works Week, sponsored by the American Public Works Association;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Allan Ekberg, Mayor of the City of Tukwila, do hereby proclaim May 21 through May 27, 2023 as:

National Public Works Week: Connecting the World

in the City of Tukwila, and I invite all residents and civic organizations to recognize the daily contributions our Public Works Department staff make to our health, safety and quality of life.

Presented this 22nd day of May, 2023.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Allan Ekberg". The signature is written in a cursive style and is positioned above a horizontal line.

Allan Ekberg, Mayor